

Entity	Description of Interests
County of Santa Clara	County government with land use jurisdiction within its boundaries. A portion of the upper Pajaro River watershed is within Santa Clara County.
NOAA National Marine Fisheries Service - West Coast Region	NMFS is responsible for the stewardship of the nation's ocean resources and their habitat. Their goal is to maintain productive and sustainable fisheries, safe sources of seafood, the recovery and conservation of protected resources, and healthy ecosystems
Santa Clara County Open Space Authority	The Open Space Authority conserves the natural environment, supports agriculture and connects people to nature, by protecting open spaces, natural areas, and working farms and ranches for future generations.
Regional Water Quality Control Board Central Coast Region	The Central Coast Water Board is a regulatory extension of the State Water Resources Control Board (SWRCB), which was established by the Porter-Cologne Water Quality Control Act (1969). The State Water Code establishes the responsibilities and authorities of the nine RWQCBs and the SWRCB. The federal Clean Water Act provides for the delegation of certain responsibilities in water quality control and water quality planning to the states; the Regional Boards implement portions of the Clean Water Act, such as the NPDES program and toxic substance control programs. The Central Coast Water Board coordinates and controls the quality of water in its region through the protection of beneficial uses, development of water quality objectives to protect the beneficial uses, and implementation planning to accommodate the water quality objectives
San Benito County Water District	The groundwater sustainability agency for the portions of the Hollister and San Juan Bautista Subbasins located in San Benito County
Santa Clara Audubon Society	The Audubon Society seeks to "conserve and restore natural ecosystems" for birds and other wildlife, using science and education to influence individual actions and public policy.
Santa Clara County Farm Bureau	The Farm Bureau is organized on a county, state and national basis, with the county Farm Bureau serving as the core of the organization. The Farm Bureau is a voluntary, nongovernmental, nonpartisan organization of farm and ranch families seeking solutions to the problems that affect their lives, both socially and economically.
Sierra Club Loma Prieta Chapter	The local chapter of the Sierra Club was active in the District GWMP process. It is committed to participating in the a South Santa Clara County Habitat Conservation Plan/Natural Communities Conservation Plan. The planning area includes the Uvas- Llagas watershed, which is a tributary to the Pajaro River.
The Nature Conservancy	TNC is a leading international, nonprofit organization whose mission is to preserve the plants, animals and natural communities that represent the diversity of life on Earth by protecting the lands and waters they need to survive. TNC is currently working on projects within the Pajaro River Watershed that promotes private lands conservation and other conservation practices. They work with landowners, communities, cooperatives and businesses to establish local groups that can protect land.
Wineries of Santa Clara Valley Association	The purpose of this sssociation is to educate people about wine and wineries, grape growing using sustainable agricultural winemaking and production practices related to the highest standard of quality winemaking in Santa Clara Valley, and to provide educational opportunities and promote public awareness about the cultural heritage, health benefits and enjoyment of wine in a socially responsible manner, and to be recognized as a positive, contributing member of the community.
Individuals	There are various individuals that have expressed an interest in sustainable groundwater management.